MRS STRAZNI'S DIARY

DIARY PAGE 29

Dear Diary,

13th of Eyle, 705

I can't believe it. The road to the Temple is shut! Tsofenka Pass is sheathed in green flames which bar my passage. If I want to continue my research I must confront Vladimir. Ivan opposes the idea of course but then again he doesn't know of my relationship to the Order.

Dear Diary,

16th of Eyle, 705

Argynvostholt has truly become a bastion of despair. The crumbling walls and ceilings are only held aloft by their hatred for Strahd. It was much harder than I thought to obtain the passphrase. I probably wouldn't have been as fortunate if he did not love Sir Eudym once. I will leave for the Temple tomorrow now that the weather is still favourable around this time of the year.

Dear Diary,

28th of Eyle, 705

I found the Grimoire! The lich really should have known better. I was not able to bring it back to Vallaki but I was able to secretly take all the notes we might possibly need. We will perform the ritual tonight, Ivan and I have been practising the past week. Fiona has already made all the necessary arrangements in her basement. I think she also wants to perform the ritual with Nikolai soon.

Dear Diary,

29th of Eyle, 705

A quick update: It has been done. It will take some time before we can be sure but at least all went well tonight. I cannot wait till spring.
